Rep. Powell Indicted For Tax Evasion

Indictment Carries Maximum Penalty Of Up to 15 Years

NEW YORK (AP)—Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr., Harlem Democrat and church leader, has been indicted on charges of federal income tax evasion and aiding in preparing a fraudulent tax return for his wife.

A special federal grand jury, impaneled 16 months ago, yesterday returned a three-count indictment against the 49-year-old Powell, Negro member of Congress from New York since 1945.

Powell supported President Eisenhower and the GOP in the 1956 election, assertedly over his displeasure with his own party's position on the racial segregation issue.

Shortly after Eisenhower's reelection, the jury was allowed to become dormant. Powell denied that this represented any deal with the administration.

The indictment was expected to bolster the position of six of seven Harlem district leaders who reportedly are out to drop Powell from the Democratic ticket this year. Powell has said he is going to run, regardless.

Of the counts against Powell, one charged tax evasion in a joint 1952 return with his wife, pianist Hazel Scott. The Powells reported a net income of $5,252. The government charged that the true net was $3,932 and that they owed taxes of $1,663.

A second count states that Mrs. Scott, advised by her husband, set her net income for 1951 at $3,815, but that her net was really $9,101. A third count covers alleged violation of the federal criminal code against aiding and abetting the preparation of a fraudulent return for another person.

The three-count indictment carries a maximum penalty, if convicted, of 15 years in prison and $30,000 in fines.

Peruvian Officials Apologize

Tender Formal, Personal Messages Of Regret to Nixon

LIMA, Peru (AP)—The stones and spit which greeted U.S. Vice President Richard Nixon at Peru's oldest university brought down condemnation today on the Peruvian government from one of the capital's chief newspapers.

It appeared the violence at San Marcos University Thursday night put a stop to Nixon's face-to-face attempts to convince Latin American students the United States is a better bet than the Soviet Union.

A round-table conference with Ecuadorean students and labor leaders — scheduled after Nixon's arrival later today in Quito — was cancelled.

Sources close to the vice president said in the three nations remaining on his tour he might abandon his custom of visiting the leading universities to talk with students.

Nixon had been warned that his visit to the Lima university might result in leftist-inspired violence but he went ahead. A rock grazed his neck, and a U.S. Secret Service agent had a tooth chipped by a flying stone as students spat on the party and jeered: "Nixon get out."

Nixon shouted back: "Don't you want to hear facts?" but the mob shouted him down and he left for Lima's Catholic University to meet with students there.

The outburst against the vice president shook Lima. The influential newspaper El Comercio said the police should have taken steps to prevent the outbreaks. Opposition papers already had criticized the government for failing to prevent similar — but milder — anti-Nixon demonstrations the day before.

Nixon made no official fuss but Foreign Minister Raul Porras quickly expressed official and personal apologies. The government also replaced the wreath Nixon had laid on the monument to South American patriot Jose San Martin, which demonstrators tore up.

Probes Value Of Income Tax Cutting

Treasury's Baird Says High Earnings Not Being Spent

BOSTON (AP)—The Treasury Department's No. 2 man, Undersecretary Julian B. Baird, questioned today whether cutting income taxes would be a very effective way of fighting the recession.

Baird apparently reflected stiffening administration resistance to such proposals. He didn't say he opposes reducing individual income levies. But the argument he marshalled was on the negative side.

The Treasury official also said the administration will have to make "a new review of debt limit requirements before the adjournment of Congress."

The debt limit was temporarily raised to 280 billion dollars earlier this year from its permanent legal ceiling of 275 billions.

Baird, in a speech prepared for the 38th annual conference of Mutual Savings Banks, said the slump in tax revenues and increased spending for defense and other items will necessitate a second look at whether the higher debt ceiling will be adequate.

It is generally believed the administration will request a new hike in the limit early this summer, perhaps by as much as an additional 10 billion dollars.

Baird summed up his questioning approach to income tax cuts in these words:

"The very fact that the present downturn in business developed at a time when personal income was at the highest level in history would seem to indicate that many considerations other than the volume of spendable funds are involved."

This amounted to asking what good it would do to put more money into the hands of Americans who already have high incomes but haven't spent their funds in a way to halt the business slump.

Crew, Passengers Safe As Plane Crash-Lands

STEPHENVILLE, Mo. (AP)—Seventy-one passengers and crew — most of them dependents of U. S. armed forces personnel — escaped serious injuries today when a Flying Boxcar plane crash-landed at nearby Harmon Field.

U. S. Air Force officials said a nose wheel collapsed as the plane was landing on its way from Europe to a New York base. The plane bumped and pitched along the runway until it slid to rest on its side in the infield.

Ambulance crews took injured passengers to a hospital for treatment.

Escapees Elude Net Of Troopers

CHESTER, Ill. (AP)—Two jail breakers, sought for three days in rugged country north of Chester, apparently eluded a net of state troopers today and fled in a stolen car under a cover of fog.

Lt. Earl Pogue said the car was discovered missing this morning after the fog lifted. An unoccupied house also had been entered and food taken.

Pogue, directing the search from Du Quoin State Police headquarters, said extra patrol cars have been ordered to search highways. Roadblocks have been set up around Chester.

The two men still at large escaped with a third man Tuesday night from the Cape Girardeau County jail in Jackson, Mo.

Sylvester Davis, 27, of St. Louis, was captured as he emerged from a thicket.

Still sought are Morris Williams, 32, and Joseph Bradford, 21, both of Chicago. All three are negroes. State troopers said late last night they were convinced Williams and Bradford still are in the area.

The trio fled from the jail at Jackson, Mo., Tuesday after overpowering a jailer. They stole a car and used it to crash through a toll gate of the Mississippi River bridge here.

Jackson is about 50 miles south of Chester and 90 miles south of St. Louis.

Plane Tire Blows Out As Iowa Pilot Lands At Municipal Airport

A nearly serious accident occurred at the Sedalia Municipal Airport about 9:45 a.m. Friday when a tire blew out on a plane making a landing. Little, if any, damage resulted to the plane, and the pilot, D. C. Ward, Keokuk, Ia., escaped injury.

Ward, flying a 310 Cessna, was coming in for a landing when his right tire blew shortly after touching down on the runway. The plane wheeled around, went off the runway into the soft ground and came to an abrupt stop.

The plane did not nose over as it stopped, but the wheels sank down in the mud. Efforts to pull the plane out were abandoned because of the flat tire and possible damage to the wheel.

A new tire and wheel are being flown to Sedalia from Keokuk in another plane, along with a mechanic.

The plane is owned by the Horner Boxes Co., Inc.

Below Ground 13 Hours

Unhurt, 24 Miners Clamber From Trap

SHARPLES, W. Va. (AP)—Twenty-four men, trapped more than 13 hours in a flooded coal mine, were brought to the surface unhurt and in good condition at dawn today.

They came out through an abandoned air shaft of the Boone County Coal Corp. No. 2-A mine. Trucks picked them up and carried them to the mine bathhouse where they were met by their families and friends, who had waited anxiously through the night.

A four-man rescue party reached the trapped miners by threading through the honey-combed passages of a section which had not been worked since the 1920s. Contact was made about 2:15 a.m.

The first man up the air shaft, Orville Kitchen, emerged at 4:50 a.m. The last man came out an hour later. He was Robert Turner, 43, assistant general foreman. The air shaft is more than a mile from the place where the men were found.

James Bradley, 35, was overjoyed at being rescued so soon. "We had planned on being there four or five days, or maybe longer," Bradley said. He said they had no food and only a little water.

Another of the rescued men, Lon Hamilton, 42, said: "We spent our time just resting. We were singing and praying."

The 24 were the entire work force on the day shift Thursday. The water, which flooded part of the mine and cut them off, broke through about 1 p.m., jamming passageways with debris.

It came from a pond above the workings. The pond was swollen by recent rains.

Crawford L. Wilson, chief of the West Virginia Department of Mines, estimated it was only 50 to 75 feet from the bottom of the pond to the nearest mine passageway.

The breakthrough was at a point about half a mile inside the main entrance. Twenty-two of the men were working nearly a mile farther inside.

The trapped men probably owed their lives to a slope away from them, so that water did not reach the place they were working.

When the break came, two men were on a mine motor hauling a load of coal cars toward the main entrance. They saw the water, and turned back to join the others. Together, the 24 then made their way to a spot near an underground electric power substation to wait it out.

Turner said the men heard rescuers tapping about 1 o'clock last night on a pipe containing electric lines.

It was 2:15 a.m. before there was any more contact with the rescuers. The trapped miners heard knocking on a cinderblock partition separating their location from the abandoned passages through which the rescue party approached.

In November Election

Alcorn Claims Farm Prices Improvement Will Aid GOP

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn

said today recent improvement in farm prices and income should help Missouri Republicans make gains in the state's congressional delegation in the November elections.

"Our hopes for the election of a Republican Congress in 1958," Alcorn said, "are pinned in no small measure to what happens right here in Missouri."

Missouri now has two Democratic senators and its U. S. house delegation is 10-1 Democratic.

In a talk prepared for a 7th district GOP luncheon, Alcorn said:

"With a Democrat-held Senate seat (Symington's) and 10 Democrat-held House seats on the line this year, the opportunity for substantial Republican gains has never been better and, very frankly, I'll be tremendously disappointed if we don't pick up several of those seats."

He said a unified party and hard work will put the 7th district back into the Republican column in 1958. The district is now represented by Rep. Charles H. Brown (D).

Alcorn said this congressional district has a heavy farm population. He added he would be willing to risk campaigning there this year on such issues as peace and "sharply improved" prices for farm products.

The GOP chairman described the Republican approach to the farm problem as basically sound. He said indications now are that farmers this year will have as much as one billion dollars of additional income.

Addressing some 600 persons at a dinner in Kansas City last night, Alcorn said:

The 4th, 6th, 7th and 11th congressional districts are all readily within reach. With some breaks Republicans could win all four—maybe more."

As for the Senate race, Alcorn said "There will be some surprises and Senator Symington could find himself in the worst trouble of his career."

The Ganges River plays a triple role in the lives of countless millions of people in India. To the Hindus, the river is one of the most sacred in all India, and they make long pilgrimages in order to bathe in its waters. The Ganges is also an important artery of trade and its 400,000-square-mile valley is one of the most productive areas of southern Asia.

Sunday School Lesson Notes:

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.

My friend, Dr. Charles Clayton Morrison, former editor of The Christian Century, introduced me to religious journalism in the United States shortly after I came from Canada in 1919.

He has stirred up an intense controversy over criticisms he expressed of the nature and basis of current evangelism in an article that he wrote recently in the 50th anniversary number of the paper that he formerly edited.

I confess that at least a part of the controversy I fail to understand. Dr. Morrison seems to set the fact that "Christianity is primarily a corporate religion," and the church as the mediator of salvation, against the individualistic aspect of current evangelism.

He says that "Christianity is not primarily an individualistic experience."

For my part I cannot see where there is any necessary discrepancy between individualistic and corporate experience.

If conversions in an evangelistic campaign are genuine it ought to mean that those converted ally themselves with the Church.

The sad fact, however, is that there is a discrepancy, and possibly a very large discrepancy, between the card-signing and the actual results so far as sincere and permanent conversions are concerned.

I cannot see, though, why individualistic aspects of sincere conversions should be disparaged.

It was in individual conversions that the Church began, and the process that culminated at Pentecost (Acts 2:47) has continued through the ages. Moreover, the Parable of the Lost Sheep puts profound emphasis upon the importance of the individual.

Dr. Morrison is sounder in his criticism of the limited basis of evangelism, and in his plea for a recognition of the "whole Gospel."

There might be some question as to just what that whole Gospel constitutes. For my part, I should prefer to speak of the "simple Gospel," in the teachings and parables of Jesus.

What this world with its hates, its violence, its prejudices and all its evils needs more than anything else is evangelism and teaching concentrated on the religion of love as Jesus lived it and proclaimed it; the love of God, the Father, as the source of man's salvation, and love of man to man as the expression of God's love in human relationships.

We are a long way from that goal.

Lutherans Planning Spring Circuit Meet

Tuesday the adult information class will meet at 6:30 p.m., and Boy Scout Troop 69 at 7:30 p.m. A special congregational meeting will be conducted at 8 p.m.

Wednesday the choir will meet at 7:30 p.m., and the Young Married Ladies Society at 8 p.m. The Ascension of Christ will be commemorated with a worship service Thursday at 8 p.m.

Bees Coming Back To Sacramento

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — The bees are coming back to Sacramento.

City Poundmaster George P. Martin, who used to dispose of them until an especially vicious swarm put him in hospital, says he is getting a dozen calls a day about bees.

One was from a motorist who had been buzzed at a downtown intersection by a swarm of several thousand. Another was from a downtown office, reporting a swarm on its window sill.

The new-born bees, semiformant in rural areas during the winter, leave the hives in the spring in swarms of 10,000 to 15,000 to seek new homes. Many descend on the city.

"There seem to be more and more of them every year," Martin said.

Martin's usual method of getting rid of the bees — referring them to beekeepers — isn't working this year. The beekeepers have all they can handle.

Martin says he himself isn't about to tangle with them again. He says people will just have to wait until the bees "hive up" for the summer.

Doctor Urges Truman To Cut Activities

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman says his doctor has asked him to reduce his activities but, he says, "I can still outwalk any of them."

Truman made the statement in explaining why he won't attend the Israel Independence Festival at Chicago Sunday. He was scheduled to speak at the festival.

"There's nothing wrong with me," he said, but added that his doctor had urged him for six months to cut down on his activities.

Jacob Arvey, honorary chairman of the Israel Bond Committee of Chicago, said the celebration would pay tribute to Truman because as president he gave immediate recognition to the new state of Israel in 1948.

Truman celebrated his 74th birthday yesterday at a luncheon given by about 70 friends.

Ex-Ambassador To Soviet Union Dies at Age 81

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph E. Davies, former ambassador to the Soviet Union and a diplomat under three presidents, died early today after a lengthy illness. He was 81.

Death came a short time after midnight at his family home here.

Davies, a wealthy Washington lawyer, was named ambassador to the Soviet Union in 1936 by President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Out of his two years as U. S. envoy to the Kremlin he wrote "Mission to Moscow," a best seller that appeared in 1942, the year after Hitler attacked the Soviet Union.

The book was credited widely with galvanizing U. S. sympathy for the Soviets, who Davies predicted would withstand the German onslaught.

Davies served as ambassador to Belgium and minister to Luxembourg for two years after leaving Moscow in 1938. He also held a number of special assignments under Roosevelt and later President Truman.

Davies, a native of Watertown, Wis., first entered government under President Wilson, whom he served as campaign manager in Wilson's first try for the White House in 1912.

Indicted Disc Jockey Quits Radio Station

NEW YORK (AP) — Indicted disc jockey Alan Freed has quit New York radio station WINS, saying it failed to give him any support after a riot which followed his rock 'n' roll show in Boston.

Freed said last night that the station's lack of support was a "hard thing to swallow."

"Certainly they should have given me a little support after all the unproved publicity from Boston. But they ran all week refusing to say anything."

Freed was reached by phone after his manager Jack Hooke made public a letter of resignation that Freed sent to WINS.

Hooke said there was a "wishy-washy" attitude by WINS toward Freed since the violence in Boston last Saturday night.

Station officials could not be reached immediately for comment.

The Boston riot led to Freed's indictment by a grand jury on charges of inciting the unlawful destruction of property during the outbreak.

More than 6,000 young people attended the show at Boston Arena. In the aftermath, 15 persons were robbed or assaulted by roving gangs of teen-agers.

Freed has denied there was any trouble in or around the Arena.

Mumbling Impatience...

When anyone sets out to please all the people all the time he has bitten into a tooth-breaking chunk of concrete.

Those who operate private enterprise service establishments know this and, unless there is allowance for public impatience, they will in due time either go financially or mentally bankrupt.

But consider the plight of the public servant, the person who deliberately seeks elective office to serve the best interest of his fellows. His courage must be as the strength of ten not only to ward off constant nipping at his heels, but also the imminent peril of being clobbered by his so-called best friends.

Take for instance Sedalia's new city administration of less than three weeks in harness. From chatter on the streets one hears already a tone of impatience about getting on with street repairs and opening of city-owned parking lots and accelerating the parks and recreational programs.

The mechanics of city government just don't work that way especially when there is a change in personnel. Under such conditions no overnight miracles of performance can be expected in city administration anymore than in private business undergoing management transformation.

A change in city administration coming in mid-April leaves scant time to organize any major program for summer work. But normal repairs and minor street building routines continue.

Acceleration of this activity, however, should be emphasized and given priority along with opening up available city property for parking lots. Considering the condition of Sedalia's streets this is imperative, so much so that delay only sparks the tinder of public impatience which weakens the ultimate cooperative effort needed to get the job done.

The importance of an adequate street building and maintenance program for Sedalia suggests the advisability of the services of a citizen's committee and a technical consultant to effect an equitable and enduring program for progress in this respect.

Sedalia's street problem is as formidable as those in many other communities. The solution will not be expedited by mumbling impatience but rather by tolerant consideration and cooperative effort. Slow, but sure.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

No Velvet Glove for Deportees

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—There is more than meets the eye behind the abrupt deportation of William Heikkila Rogers who is breathing fresh life into the Justice Department, promptly reversed Gen. Joseph Swing, the swaggering commissioner of immigration, and ordered Heikkila back to the United States to have a chance to say good-bye to his wife and family and exhaust his due process under the law. Rogers' commissioner of immigration, however, remained completely unrepentant. He even bragged that about 97 to 98 per cent of the deportations from the United States were handled the same way.

The New York Times, which simultaneously carried a biographical sketch of the commissioner picturing him as a "soldier with a big heart," soft-pedaled Swing's statement. The Times quoted Swing as saying: "About 97 per cent of the deportable aliens go without protest and are given ample time to wind up their affairs."

But what the West Point commissioner of immigration actually said in testimony before the House Judiciary subcommittee was:

"About 97 to 98 per cent of our people are handled this way. We never give them 72 hours or a week or 10 days or a month if they have business to settle. There is about 3 per cent of these no-goodniks and the only way to handle them is—they know they're deportable and they know if we get our hands on them they will be summarily deported." (The grammar is the general's.)

"Last year," he said, "we physically deported 6,700-odd aliens and the year before over 7,000. It has averaged about 7,000 a year."

General Swing's testimony showed he had complete contempt for the Constitution's "due process" of law which he has sworn to uphold. He showed every evidence of wanting to continue the practice of summarily deporting aliens without giving them permission to say good-bye or tell their wives what had happened.

Some news accounts made it appear that Swing admitted he had made a mistake in ordering his San Francisco immigration director, Bruce Barber, to act as he did. Actually, Swing made no such admission. The mistake he admitted was in getting caught, thereby exposing Bruce to court action.

Big-Hearted Soldier

The real inside record on General Swing shows him to be anything but the New York Times' "soldier with a big heart," except possibly in putting his daughter Mary N. Swing Mitchell on the government payroll at $4,500 a year. He was also big-hearted about supplying a government immigration plane to Attorney General Brownell for a purely political trip to confer with Governor Shivers of Texas.

General Swing, a 1915 West Point classmate of Eisenhower's, is the first military man ever to become commissioner of immigration. He promptly appointed two other military men, Gens. Frank H. Partridge and Edwin B. Howard, to be his assistants, thus pretty well militarizing this civilian branch of government. Shortly thereafter, Generals Partridge and Howard drew up a secret "Plan A" to defend the Mexican border from military invasion, despite the fact that the United States has been proud of its peaceful relations with Mexico.

General Swing also exhibited his big-hearted

LINCOLN (Neb.) JOURNAL: Barbers Wanted. Nebraska has jet planes in its present and an atomic energy plant in its future. But seven counties in this sovereign commonwealth are without services of a registered barber.

This is not so bad as not having indoor plumbing or central heating. But it is rough enough in a family where talent with the shears is lacking.

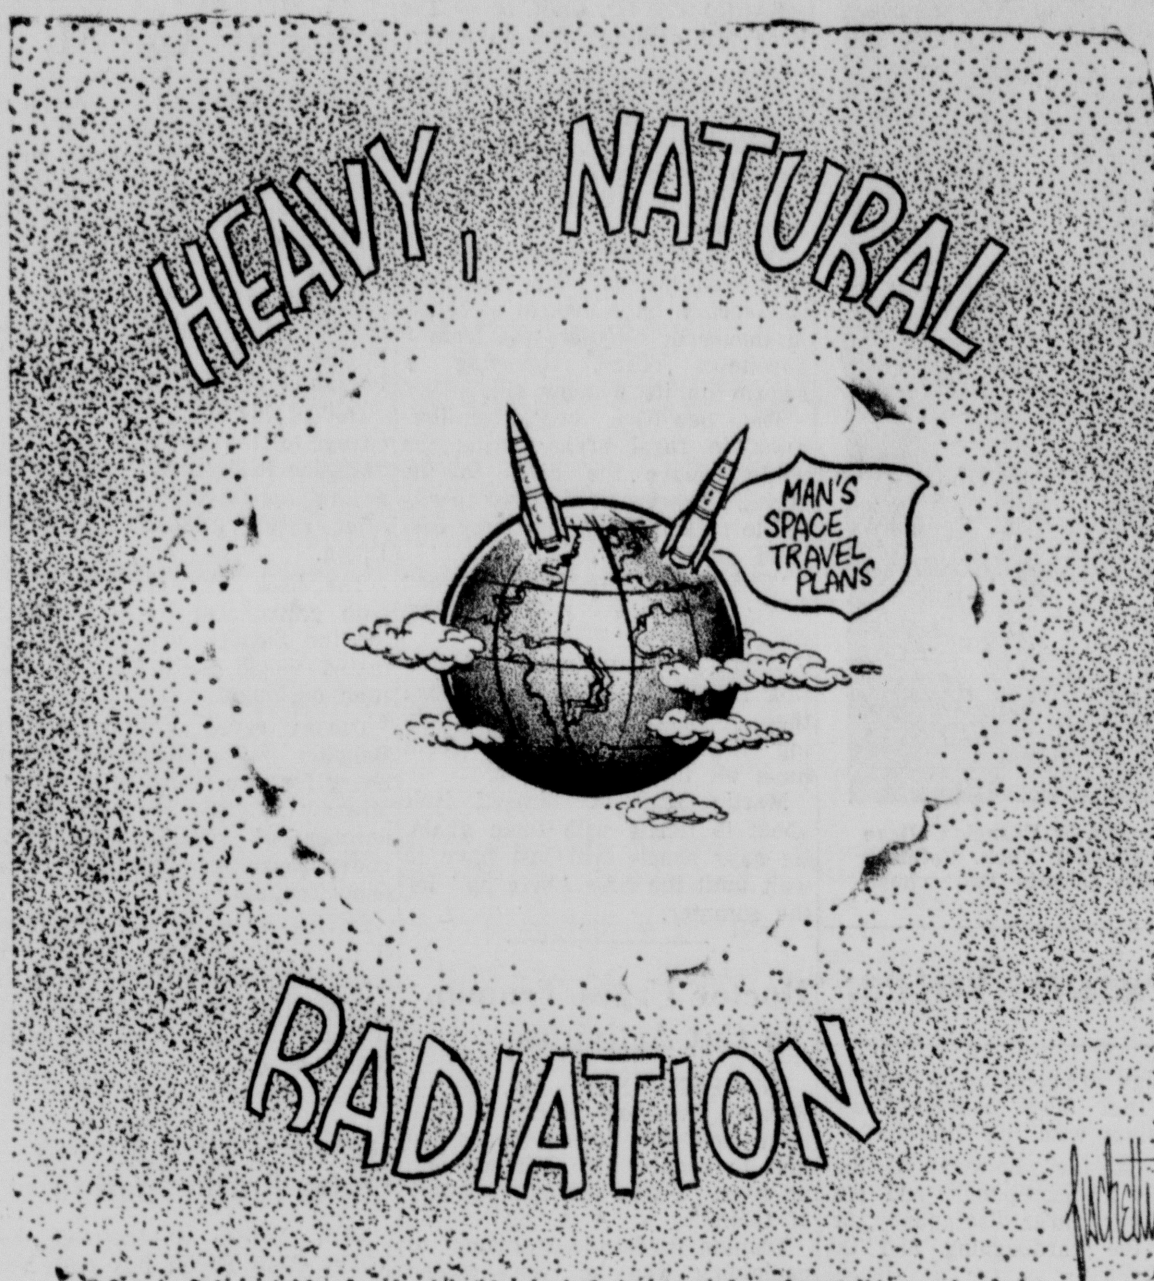

The eight counties—Arthur, Banner, Blaine, Loup, Keya Paha, Thomas and McPherson—in 1950 had a total population of 8870. Roughly figuring that about half must be males that leaves 4435 scalps untouched by professional hands.

Think of it—4435 "new market" heads—thin heads, fat heads, new heads, old heads.

All going under home-welded clippers and blippers.

If there is any consolation, it must be this: The basic difference between a good haircut and a bad one is generally about four days.

Nixon's Stoning Climax to Bad Trend

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The stoning and spitting inflicted on Vice President Nixon in Peru Thursday was the climax to a series of unpleasant situations in every one of the five Latin-American countries he has visited.

No doubt the Soviet Union will have a propaganda field day with what's happened to him.

The antagonism he has encountered was perhaps in great measure Communist-inspired. But it would be too easy and comfortable to think the Reds did it all. Nixon himself said "there is a very considerable lack of understanding" in Latin America about United States policies and motives. Why? Perhaps a congressional investigation will attempt to get answers.

In all five countries he has visited, Nixon has received requests—direct or indirect—for more American economic help. Nixon's whole Latin-American trip, and its events, raises two immediate questions:

1. Was the trip wise in the first place? Surely the State Department must have known there was some broad anti-American feeling in Latin America and there might be unpleasant episodes. Perhaps it misjudged how unpleasant they would be.

2. Is American policy and propaganda in the area a failure or so badly handled that, despite help from this country, resentment is growing? And, of course, there's the question: What can be done about it.

A short rundown on Nixon's trip shows what happened:
He arrived in Uruguay April 26. He got a 21-gun salute, shouts of praise, and jeers. Students from the National University shouted "Out with Nixon." They condemned him as a representative of "North American imperialism." Uruguay, in an economic crisis, is dickering with the Soviet Union for trade. The trade of this small country—2½ million people—with the United States has dropped off.

Then he flew to Argentina to attend the inaugural of President Arturo Frondizi. He was so badly slowed up by traffic he arrived late for the ceremony and was jeered when he did arrive.

(The official receptions he got everywhere, of course, were friendly.)

He got a 21-gun salute in Paraguay but several students were arrested for crying "Long live liberty." This slogan was described as Communist by the military dictator of Paraguay, President Alfredo Stroessner.

Nixon was welcomed to Bolivia with a shower of confetti and pamphlets telling him to go home and proclaiming "death to the high cost of living imposed by te Yankees." When Nixon got to Peru—where there's much unemployment and growing anti-Americanism — his reception was cool, and with jeers. The New York Times reported that one newspaper, anti-Communist but leftist, declared editorially that while opposition to Nixon was fomented by a Communist fifth column, much of the Peruvian resentment was due to the "frustrations and bitterness that the United States created among genuinely democratic groups friendly to the U. S. people, such as ourselves."

Some of the causes for the anti-Americanism listed by the paper: alleged U. S. support for Latin-American dictatorships and economic policies injurious to the region.

There had been widespread criticism of this country recently in Peru, Mexico and Bolivia after the U. S. Tariff Commission proposed higher tariffs on lead and zinc, major exports of those countries.

The climax to the disastrous trip was reached when Nixon—and his party—sought to enter San Marcos University, where he wanted to talk with the students. He was greeted with stones, fruit and spit. A floral American flag was torn up.

Nixon was followed along the streets by jeering crowds. This, he said, was a day of infamy. It's also a day which didn't make the United States look good.

The Mature Parent

Sending 'Bad Boy' To Camp Helps Mom, But Not The Boy

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence

One morning during Easter vacation Stan Y. tossed his younger brother's ball mitt up a tree.

Later his angry mother got an idea. She thought, "Why don't we send Stan away to camp this summer. Something's got to be done about this eternal teasing of Bud! Maybe separation would break the habit."

After Mr. Y. agreed it was a good idea, she took it to Stan himself. He was bored by the camp brochures she'd sent for. He said, "Who wants to go to dumps like these I know how to swim."

If she'd shown the brochures to less belligerent Bud, he'd have said, "Gosh, these kids are having a cook-out in the woods! Why can't I ever go on a cook-out in some woods, Mom?"

But Mrs. Y. didn't show the brochures to Bud. Instead she began a campaign to sell resisting Stan the charms of summer camps.

Why didn't it occur to her to send tractable Bud to camp and keep troublesome Stan at home?

Because she herself wanted relief from Stan's troublesomeness.

Which is fine with me. It's healthy to want relief from the strains of living with a too-anxious child. But his anger is only too apt to be his belief that we don't want him, so we don't get relief from it by sending him away from us — and confirming his impression.

Like that of many other first-born children, Stan's troublesomeness is rooted in the oldest child's immemorial conviction. "My mother had my brother because she was dissatisfied with me."

The parents of difficult first-born children know this in their bones. Our trouble is, we don't want to be bothered becoming conscious of what we know.

So we can't think, "All right, this summer I'll act on what I know. We'll send agreeable Bud to camp and keep disagreeable Stan at home where I can give him extra time and attention. If I trust the sincerity of my wish to be relieved of his troublesomeness, perhaps it will be granted and I'll be shown the way to convince Stan that he is as satisfying as his brother."

Unfortunately, some of us dislike laboring for what we want. So we'll keep confident Bud at home and send aggressive, unconfident Stan to camp for others to labor over. We may have fun. But is that relief?

No, ma'am.

"Staked" Plains

The Llano Estacado, or "Staked Plains," of eastern New Mexico, are so named because, in pioneer days, men who drove their covered wagons over the region found it so flat they were forced to drive stakes into the ground to mark the trail.

Gray Market In Babies

Social Workers, Lawyers, Doctors Tackle Problem

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — How to solve the disgraceful problem of black and gray markets in babies has been tackled by a group of lawyers, doctors and social workers at the request of the Children's Bureau, and the top suggestion is that every community offer adequate services for unmarried mothers.

All agree the adoption of babies can best be done through a social agency, not by lawyers, doctors, or any individual (with good or bad intentions).

One way lawyers can come to the rescue of these tiny victims is to seek correction of existing laws dealing with abandonment of children.

State laws differ. In some states, children cannot be called abandoned and eligible for adoption except in cases of cruelty or gross neglect.

So, many children in orphan's homes, not subject to cruelty but never visited by parents, cannot be adopted because there's no legal way to terminate parental rights.

A bill, introduced Jan. 1957 by Craig Hosmer, (R-Calif.) would amend the U. S. Code to make unlawful certain practices in connection with placing of minor children for permanent free care or for adoption. It would rule out placement of any child without investigation and approval by a public or voluntary placement agency.

Dr. Jordan Says

Animals, Especially Pets, Spread Human Diseases

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

The fact that a three-day conference on animal disease and human health was held last September in New York under the auspices of the New York Academy of Sciences and the U. S. public Health Service offers testimony to the importance of animals as a source of human disease. The disorders which are involved are vast in number and their causes range from viruses to higher forms of life, such as animal parasites (worms) and fungi.

Some of the diseases which can be spread from animals to human beings are well known, such as brucellosis or undulant fever, and rabies or hydrophobia.

Others will probably be unfamiliar to most readers under such names as leptospirosis (Weil's disease), or listerellosis.

Some of the diseases may be spread from domestic animals, some from wild animals and some from birds. Some, like Rocky Mountain spotted fever, or plague, may be carried by insects from animal to man.

A common disease today on the North American continent is brucellosis, or undulant fever. This disease affects principally cattle, goats and swine, and is acquired by human beings who come in contact with infected animals or who acquire the germ through the meat or by swallowing milk or milk products in which the responsible germ is living.

Cat scratch disease in recent years has become fairly well known. This is probably the result of a virus introduced into the human body by means of a scratch from an infected cat.

Psittacosis, on the other hand, is a disease fairly frequent among those who have parrots or parakeets as pets. To avoid the latter it is wise to purchase such a pet from an extremely reliable source.

In general, domestic animals and pets are more important sources of human disease than wild ones, because of the fact that domestic animals and pets are likely to come in closer contact with human beings.

Even man's best friend, the dog, can be responsible for human ailments.

Silvers Is Putting On His Hour-Long 'Intimate Extravaganza' for Kicks

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK — Phil Silvers is doing his May 13 "Intimate extravaganza" over CBS-TV after much persuasion. He says they have been after him for more than a year to do an hour-long variety show.

And he's doing it "for kicks." "And since I'm doing it for fun," he says, "I'm going to do it the way I want and it'll either be a big smash or a tasteful flop."

There are no big name guest stars, none of the usual, expected things. Phil will do a lot of his old bits — the "Old Man River" bit, the acrobat bit, some others — and some sight gags with singers and a brief routine with some of his Bilko platoon and perhaps a skit.

"You know," he says, "I'm doing this just in time. I've been rehearsing some of the old bits I'm going to do and, it's funny, but I've almost forgotten them. If I'd waited much longer, they'd have been gone."

This may be the first of several of these Silvers shows. The sponsor already wants him to do more even before the first one is aired. As for Silvers, he's waiting "to see how it goes."

Ted Mack's crew at "The Original Amateur Hour" office is blushing. On one recent show, a contestant got sick at the last minute and couldn't go on. So they put in a hurry call for a boy soprano they'd auditioned in Philadelphia several months ago. He was flown to New York, rushed to the studio, given a quick run-through — and they found his voice had changed.

It's a tragedy of TV that whenever a brilliant playwright is developed, he goes over to some other medium. It happened with Paddy Chayefsky, with Horton Foote, with N. Richard Nash, and, now with James Costigan.

Costigan is the young (30) writer who turned out the breath-taking original, "Little Moon of Alban," for the Hallmark Hall of Fame, and the fine adaptation of "Wuthering Heights" for the DuPont Show of the Month, among other things.

And now he's temporarily through with TV. It's not a permanent desertion, at least he hopes it isn't but he has no further definite TV plans. Instead, he's got countless high-paying and challenging offers from Hollywood and the legitimate stage.

He's doing the screen treatment of "Green Mansions," which will star Audrey Hepburn. Otto Preminger wants him to do a modern version of "Three Penny Opera." Broadway producer Herman Shumlin says he'll put up any play Costigan writes. Kermit Bloomgarden wants to do "Little Moon." And more.

Naturally, Costigan will capitalize on some of this, although his artistic standards are high. He won't make money for money's sake, "but if an interesting assignment has money involved, I'll take it."

He says TV doesn't give playwrights anything, compared to what it gives actors.

"As it is," he says, "there's no incentive to stay. Television establishes talent, but then can't compete."

So they come up, one by one, then go off to greener fields when they've made their mark. Television, sooner or later, will have to realize the play's the thing, or inevitably it will all go the way of Hollywood hacks.

Costigan, an actor as well as playwright, is grateful to TV and likes working in it, but he's a human being, first. As he says, there's no incentive to stay.

Unlike filmed TV, the live programs rarely have stand-ins. One of the rare exceptions is the Patrice Munsell Show, which employs Betty Low as Pat's stand-in.

James Costigan Betty Low

Her job is to stand in Pat's place during camera rehearsals and such, so the cameras and lights can be arranged properly while Pat makes Betty something of a stand Pat.

This is not her sole occupation. She's primarily a dancer on the show, and is a veteran Broadway dancer and actress and, in fact teaches the dance at New York's Finch College. She's also a former Finch College. She's also a former Monte Carlo.

Let's help all of the older folks by correcting wrongs in present state . . .

PENSION LAWS

We earnestly invite voters to affix their signatures to the initiative petition that may permit legal Missouri voters to have their "say" about the several abuses now in exist-ence in our pension laws.

These older people who are denied pension benefits have PAID SALES TAX FOR MANY YEARS. Old age assistance checks are not charity in any sense — every Missourian (young and old) pays this tax to honor our older folks and permit them to live in some degree of dignity and peace of mind.

SOME OLDER MISSOURIANS ARE DENIED THIS INCOME FOR NO GOOD REASON!

The folks at West Side Variety want to see these sections of our pension laws corrected. Voters may sign one of these legal petitions available at our place of business.

Let's do our bit to try and correct an IN-EQUALITY THAT HAS EXISTED IN MIS-SOURI'S PENSION LAWS FOR TOO LONG A TIME . . .

Ford Claims New Increase Is Too Much

DETROIT (AP)—Henry Ford II, president of Ford Motor Co., said today the current demands of the United Auto Workers on the auto industry would raise new car costs more than $300.

Ford, in a letter to Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), said the union demands on the auto industry "amount to more than 70 cents an hour, exclusive of profit sharing. The 70 cents an hour demand alone, if granted by us and our suppliers generally, would raise the cost of an automobile more than $300. No automobile company could grant such a demand and expect to stay in business."

"As a matter of fact, any increase above present labor costs—even of a few cents per hour—would have to be reflected in immediate price increases on cars and trucks, if the present losses of some automotive companies are to be curtailed and the declining profit margins of others corrected."

Kefauver wrote Ford for his opinion on a proposed cut in the present 10 per cent federal excise tax on autos in return for price reductions by the auto builders.

A flareup of tension in contract negotiations between General Motors and the UAW was eased today by agreement to discuss a union charge that the company is threatening to scrap the jobs of 500 skilled workers.

The UAW claimed at the bargaining table that General Motors is shutting down the die room of its Fisher Body Division plant in Pontiac, Mich.

UAW headquarters issued a statement saying, "The shutdown threat proves just what the UAW has been saying all along—that industry overexpanded productive capacity without any similar effort to expand consumer buying power."

GM issued no statement in reply. The company said that a meeting had been set up on the local level to discuss the problem.

Skin Diving May Be Treacherous Risk Addiction

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A Stanford University psychiatrist cautioned today that love for skin diving can become a treacherous risk-taking addiction.

Dr. Roderic Gorney, in a paper prepared for the American Psychoanalytic Assn. convention, said some eight million Americans have tried ocean diving with self-contained underwater breathing apparatus.

The sense of relaxed weightlessness in a silent world and other physiological changes induce in the diver a sense of well-being and fascination, Dr. Gorney said. "The dreams, writings and subjective experiences of divers indicate that unconsciously the concept of ocean is equated with the concepts of mother and love."

"Thus, the diver unconsciously reacts to the pleasures of shallow water euphoria by a feeling that he is somehow once again utterly safe in mother's arms."

"He comes to crave this feeling and thus may develop an addiction to diving."

But unfortunately, Dr. Gorney observed, the ocean mother is not so protective as the remembered earthbound counterpart. "First of all, the diver who surrenders himself to the ocean mother's care risks running out of air and drowning; or going too deep and developing fatal nitrogen narcosis or bends."

In trying to protect himself, Dr. Gorney said, the diver must not break strict rules established by "Mother Ocean."

Crippled Children's Center Is Jaycees Program Subject

An insight into the purpose, scope and needs of the Crippled Children's Center in Sedalia was given the Sedalia Jaycees through a movie and short talks at their Thursday night meeting in the Pacific Room of the Pacific Cafe.

The Jaycees also had a brief visit from Jaycee Tom Delph, who was married that evening to Miss Beth Whitfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitfield, Dresden, to express his appreciation for a gift presented to him by the organization.

The program was arranged by Harold Barrick, who introduced Mrs. Virginia Flower, president of the Center's board of directors. Mrs. Flower said that the Center depended for its continued operation on community-wide support and that this has been given in generous measure. She said that, with such support, the Center will be able to improve and expand its services.

Barrick, a member of the Center's board, told a little of the history of the Center, which was begun in 1955, and said that since that time the number of children assisted there has increased from nine to 24 in the classrooms and another 25 who receive special attention outside of the regular classroom routine. There are now seven paid staff members and between 40 and 50 volunteer helpers each of whom works a half-day a week. All this is based on an annual budget of between $22,000 and $23,000, most of which comes from donations from individuals and organizations throughout the city.

ed the police he would waive extradition. Information from Dunkirk, Ind., Friday morning was in effect to release Smith to his father, Chester Smith, enroute to Sedalia for his son.

Police Court

Four overtime parkers who failed to appear in police court forfeited their $1 cash bonds and 31 others paid the usual 25-cent fee.

K. Arthur Sapp, 402 East Second charged with being intoxicated and disturbance of the peace, pleaded guilty to Judge Thomas T. Kealing and was fined $10 on each charge.

Accidents

Forrest Kelley, 1817 South Kentucky, suffered a laceration over his left eye and on top of his head about 9:30 a. m. Friday when he fell in his cell at the city jail. Kelley had been in police court on a charge of being intoxicated and was sentenced to ten days in jail. On his return to his cell from court, he was given an apple by Jimmy Byrnes.

Byrnes told the police that Kelley started to eat the apple when he suddenly began to choke. He got up to spit it out, blacked out and fell off his bunk and against a lavatory.

He was taken to Bothwell Hospital in the Ewing ambulance, where he was treated by Dr. A. J. Campbell. He was later returned to the jail.

Circuit Court

Juanita Paxton filed a petition for divorce against Lloyd W. Paxton in Circuit Court May 8. Hayes and Durley are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

Mrs. Rudolph Swope, director of the center, showed a color movie of the center's facilities and efforts to help youngsters who need special attention. Later a question-and-answer session was conducted.

In response to an inquiry about what the Jaycees could do to help, in addition to financial contributions, Barrick said he felt it is important to let people know that the center has facilities to help children who might otherwise be left to flounder through life because they cannot, for one reason or another, take part in the regular public schools schedule.

Some parents seem reluctant to admit their children may need such help or they feel that it will accomplish nothing. A great deal can be accomplished, Barrick said, and progress can be seen at the Center every day by anyone who cares to drop in and watch the proceedings there. Once the parents accept this premise, the work can start.

Marvin Hanigan, speaking for Chairman Charles Ramseyer, who could not attend, reported on the progress of movie ticket sales in the Jaycees' latest ways and means project and encouraged greater effort.

He also, as chairman of the Teenage Road-e-o, said that bad weather had forced postponement of the annual driving contest to this coming Sunday at the Fairgrounds, beginning at 1:30 p. m. He said that there are known to be 19 contestants preparing to enter, and more may appear on Sunday. Last year's winner, Robert Shaw, also won the state contest and competed in the national competition in Washington, D. C.

George Lorey, speaking for Chairman Max Cassing, told of a proposed television sales and operation project planned for mid-June, while Chairman John Hays said that the membership drive had netted nine new members so far and more are expected. Don Weller stated that the annual Teenage Golf competition will be conducted either May 26 or 27 at the Country Club, with Gerald Cain as chairman.

President Gene Knothe reminded the members of the annual state convention in Jefferson City May 23-25, and approximately 15 members indicated they would attend. Knothe also made announcements about the Armed Forces Day banquet to be held at Smith-Cotton High School's cafeteria May 16, and the installation dinner of the Sedalia Jaycee-Ettes on May 20 at Flat Creek Inn.

Knothe presented Charles Wendt with an Exhausted rooster certificate for having passed the age limit of 36, and the organization voted him an honorary lifetime membership. Wendt is a charter member of the club, a former board member and a past president.

Tom Keating and Robert Gardner received their lapel pins and certificates as new members, while Jack Tindle, Floyd Stevenson, Ursel Shaw and Frank Russell were presented bibs as Baby Jaycees.

Guests were: Fred Phaby, of George Lorey; Harlan Snow, of Dick Thomas; Charlie Reisdorph, of Jack Faber; Walter Loveland of Larry England; Carl Berry of Allen Hawkins; Jim Fleming, of James Schumaker; and Harvey LaPlant, of Dave Kellner.

Square Dance Pattern

Sedalia Square Dance Association will have a dance at Smith-Cotton cafeteria at 8 p. m. Three local callers, Damon Hieronymus, Herb Winebrenner and Ray McCarty, who call square dances throughout Missouri, will be the callers.

Song Program Honors Michael Kraxberger

Devine Tells About M.U. Grid Prospects

A cautious but encouraging peep into the University of Missouri's football future was given by Coach Dan J. Devine, head football coach at the University, at a joint meeting of 120 Sedalia Kiwanians, Lions and guests meeting in the Ambassador room of Hotel Bothwell Thursday noon.

The speaker was introduced by Don Fauror, University athletic director, who reviewed incidents leading up to Devine's employment, a personality picture of the popular new coach and the imposing prospects of the University of Missouri both scholastically and athletically.

Henry Salveter was program chairman.

Coach Devine outlined the prospects of the Missouri team on the 1958 gridiron and was refreshingly conservative rather than dealing in spectacular promises about the competition which impends this fall. Those who listened to him, particularly the old time football fans, came away with a feeling that Devine is the kind of a coach who will get a tough job accomplished without unnecessary fanfare or superlative sound-bites.

Sharing attention on the Kiwanis-Lions program was observance of National Music Week during which Salveter presented Sedalia's first lady of music, Mrs. E. F. Yancey, whose service in that field and in community activities has never slackened since girlhood in her home town.

Salveter next presented Mrs. William Hopkins, of the Helen G. Steele Music Club and chairman of the week in the 33th annual observance. She complimented Kiwanian Abe Rosenthal and Lillian Fox, in which the club concurred by applause, for their service in music to the community. Rosenthal as director of the Sedalia Symphony and Men's Choral Club, and Miss Fox is accompanist.

Then on behalf of the music club, Mrs. Hopkins presented Mrs. Jack Herndon, vocalist, and Mrs. Burris Carter, pianist, for two numbers.

Presiding at the meeting was Sylvan Woolery, vice-president of Kiwanis, and Jack Delph, vice-president of Lions.

Norman Pitcairn reported on progress of the Kiwanis annual auction sale which will be held on the court house parking lot Saturday, May 24, and urged members to list their merchandise contributions.

James Ryan reported on the Kiwanis attendance contest now underway. John Ryan and D. Kelly Scruton reported on preparations for the observance of Armed Forces Day May 17 and 18.

Invocation was by the Rev. Harry Purviance.

Senators Raise Devil With Yankees

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

In the stage play "Damn Yankees" 1958 was the year the Washington Senators, with the help of the Devil, beat the New York Yankees for the American League pennant.

Well, this is 1958 and you can give the Senators a double take. They've been raising the Devil so far, haven't lost to the Yankees yet and are in second place, had a game behind the Bombers going into tonight's game at Yankee Stadium.

Pete Ramos, a 23-year-old right-hander who last season gained his only two victories over the Yankees in eight lifetime decisions, takes a 2-0 record to the mound tonight for the Senators. The Yankees plan to start Bob Turley (3-0).

The Senators closed in on the Yankees with a 4-1 victory over Detroit yesterday. Rain shelved the only other game scheduled, Cleveland at New York.

Only one game was scheduled in the National League, with Cincinnati beating Chicago 10-8.

The Senators, who beat the Yankees 5-4 in 10 innings in their only meeting of the season, were retired in order for 4 1-3 innings by right-hander Bob Shaw. Then three successive hits, singles by Jim Lemon and Norm Zachin and a double by Rocky Bridges, made it 2-0 in the fifth. Three hits and Clint Courtney's sacrifice fly counted two more in the sixth and Shaw was 0-2.

Young Ralph Lumentoni won his first in the majors, with Dick Hyde's fine relief help. The 21-year-old lefty gave up four hits and struck out three, but walked six—two of them ahead of Reno Bertoia's RBI single in the sixth. Hyde allowed three hits in his 3 2-3 innings.

No Miracle Wanted, Just Plain Victory Is Cardinals Lament

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
"I'm not looking for a miracle, just a victory for a change."

This was the lament of Manager Fred Hutchinson, whose St. Louis Cardinals have lost seven straight and haven't won a home game this year.

The Red Birds meet the Chicago Cubs tonight in the opener of a four-game series at St. Louis. The Cubs, who sent the Red Birds into a tailspin at the very opening of the season, have won 13 of their last seventeen games with St. Louis.

Sam Jones, beaten three times and without a victory in four starts, will pitch against Chicago's Moe Drabowski.

Joey Lopes Favored Over Carlos Ortiz

HOLLYWOOD — Lightweight Joey Lopes of Sacramento, Calif., goes into the ring at the Hollywood Legion Stadium tonight a slight favorite to whip Carlos Ortiz of New York and snap the Easterner's string of 26 victories. The 16-round match will be televised by the National Broadcasting Co., starting at 9 p.m. EST.

Priest Who Backed Baseball As Force for Good Succumbs

CANTON, N. Y. —The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Harold J. Martin, who considered baseball second only to religion as a force for good, is dead at 62.

The popular, baseball-pitching Roman Catholic priest died yesterday in the rectory of St. Mary's Church here.

Noted for his wit and wisdom, he had served parishes in northern New York for 40 years.

A Pontifical Mass of Requiem will be celebrated Monday in the church where he served. He will be buried in nearby Ogdensburg.

Baseball was much of his life. He helped to found the old Canadian-American League in 1935 and was its president until it suspended operations in World War II.

He organized the Border League also Class C, and the Northern New York League. He was co-owner and vice president of the Utica club in the Class A Eastern League until its sale to the Philadelphia Phillies in 1944. Msgr. Martin played the game.

NBA Doubleheader Will Benefit Stokes

NEW YORK — Teams of the National Basketball Assn. will play a special doubleheader before next season for benefit of the stricken Cincinnati Royals' star, Maurice Stokes.

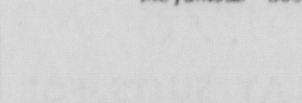

No definite date has been set for the benefit twin-bill. St. Louis, the division champion, will meet Boston in the first game. Cincinnati and Minneapolis clash in the second.

Stokes, former St. Francis (Pa.) player, fell ill with sleeping sickness two months ago. He is in a semi-coma at a Covington, Ky., hospital.

Braves Lead League For Third Time

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

The world champion Milwaukee Braves, leading the National League for only the third time this season, see what they can do about staying there tonight against Cincinnati—the club that put 'em in first place for keeps last season.

The Braves, who haven't held first for two consecutive days this far, were handed a percentage-point lead by Cincinnati yesterday. The Redlegs rammed home eight runs in the ninth for a 10-8 victory over the Cubs in the only game scheduled.

A 5-4 victory over the Redlegs at Milwaukee hoisted the Braves into the National League lead on Aug. 6 last season.

Pitcher Warren Spahn (4-0) was the winner then and he's Milwaukee's started tonight.

Bob Purkey (3-0), the only pitcher to shut out the Braves this season, is the Redleg choice.

Smoky Burgess was the Redlegs' choice in the ninth inning yesterday and he couldn't have been choicer—slamming a pinch-hit, three-run homer that capped the comeback spurt. Joe Nuxhall, fourth of five Redleg pitchers, was the winner. He worked the seventh and eighth, and paired with Hal Jeffcoat for three innings of perfect relief.

The big blow was Burgess' first homer of the year and it came on the first pitch by reliever Fernando Rodriguez.

The Cubs had built an 8-2 lead with five in the fifth and Dale Long's solo homer in the sixth.

The rest of tonight's schedule sends Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, Chicago to St. Louis and Los Angeles to San Francisco.

Big Eight Ball Pits Divisions In Friday Games

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It's the first division versus the second in four Big Eight conference baseball sets opening today. It is entirely possible, the upper bracket will be shuffled around considerably come tomorrow night.

The schedules call for one 9-inning game today and 7-inning doubleheaders tomorrow.

The Missouri Tigers, who lead Oklahoma State by a slim margin of 23 percentage, meet Iowa (4-2) at Columbia, Mo. Missouri (6-2) is expected to pitch Ernie Nevers, John O'Donoghue and Doug Gulick. Iowa State's starters are listed as Gene Lafferty, Bob Locker and Grant Halsne.

Kansas' Jayhawks, rated third on a 7-3 record, appear to have it toughest of any of the top teams. The Jayhawks meet fifth-place Nebraska in Lincoln.

Larry Miller, who has won all six of his games this season, draws the starting assignment for Kansas. Ron Wiley and Gary Russell will follow Miller. Nebraska has Dwight Siebler, Charles Ziegenbein and Gil Dunne ready for the mound.

In the other tills Oklahoma (6-3) will be at Kansas State (2-9) and Colorado (4-8) at Oklahoma State (8-3).

Jackie Robinson Calls Old Dodger Nine Deteriorated

NEW YORK — Jackie Robinson stuck to his guns in calling his old Dodger mates a "deteriorated team" today although a new light was thrown on the apparent reason for the blast—the award to Walter O'Malley for breaking the color line in baseball.

O'Malley, president of the Los Angeles Dodgers, declined comment.

Wesley Brazier, executive director of the Urban League, who made the award, said: "The award was presented to O'Malley for the entire Dodger organization and not to O'Malley individually for a single accomplishment."

It was this award which provoked a broadside from Robinson, the first Negro to play in the major leagues and now retired.

"That's preposterous," fumed Robinson, executive of a restaurant chain. "O'Malley had nothing to do with it. It was all Mr. Rickey's (Branch Rickey, former president of the Dodgers) idea and I don't believe O'Malley knew anything about it. In fact, he wasn't too keen about it in the first place."

In Pittsburgh, Rickey, chairman of the board of directors of the Pittsburgh Pirates, tried to calm the troubled waters.

"Jackie is right in that O'Malley had nothing to do with introducing Negroes into the major leagues," Rickey said, "but Walter wouldn't claim he did. He might have accepted the award to avoid embarrassment."

Robinson, who retired shortly after being sold to the Giants in December 1957, was bitter in his attack on the Dodgers' present president.

"The Dodgers have deteriorated," he said, "and O'Malley must take the responsibility for that. Our team — the team that won so many pennants — was a Rickey team."

"He (O'Malley) cashed in on the SYRACUSE, N. Y. — With approximately one month remaining before the close of the American Bowling Congress, a total of 83 teams have topped the 2900 mark in the open team event.

The 83rd team to top that figure was the Nel Bridge Inn team of New Milford, N. J., which had high score in Thursday night's team event. There were no changes in any of the events Thursday. The record for teams scoring over 2900 in the ABC is 99, set in Cleveland in 1939.

Brazil Train Crash Inquiry Is Ordered

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—President Juscelino Kubitschek today ordered an investigation into the crash of two commuter trains in which an estimated 150 persons were killed. It was the second disaster in as many months on the government's Central do Brasil line and the worst train wreck in Brazil's history.

Some 300 more passengers were injured last night when one electric commuter train plowed into the rear of another.

Rescue workers toiled through the misty night to pull the dead, dying and injured from the twisted metal cars piled along embankments 10 miles north of Rio de Janeiro.

Thousands ringed the scene of the wreck. At nearby stations other angry commuters rioted in protest.

Sixty-seven passengers were killed March 7 when three Central do Brasil trains rammed together. Until yesterday the highest death toll in a Brazilian rail wreck had been 119, in 1952.

Kubitschek, who went to view the wreckage at midnight, said the investigation would get under way at once and he would take "necessary measures no matter who is hurt."

Officials said one train of five cars was stopped about 100 yards north of Mangueira station when an eight-car train came down the same track at about 45 miles an hour. The engine of the speeding train sliced through three quarters of the rear car of the stopped train.

Death Claims Child While Parents Visit

WICHITA (AP)—Quick-striking pneumonia apparently caused the death of three-month-old Danny Wayne Sanders yesterday. He had been left in the care of a baby sitter while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sanders visited relatives in Boonville, Mo.

Dr. Dean Bratt, coroner, gave the probable cause of death. The child underwent an emergency operation at a Wichita hospital.

County Auditor Spurns Annual Salary Raise

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—Mecklenburg County Auditor Walker H. Busby says he won't take a $500 a year raise.

"There are too many people out of work and times are too hard for me to be getting a $500 raise just because I work for a government with a lot of money," Busby said.

He was hired last year at a salary of $6,500 a year with a $500 raise at the end of six months and consideration for another $500 raise at the end of a year.

Each Owns Half Of Marriage License

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Kate Manx and Leslie Stevens each own 50 per cent of a marriage license today.

Stevens, 34, tendered a $2 check for the license yesterday, but a clerk explained that cash is required. So he dug into his pocket—and came up with only $1.

Kate, 26, opened her purse and pulled out the other $1.

Student Shoots Coach in Thigh

BANNING, Calif. (AP)—Physicians say they will probably have to amputate the leg of Arthur Linden, high school football coach shot in the thigh by one of his students.

The boy, James Johnson, 15, is in Riverside Juvenile Hall, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Before the shooting, Linden had reprimanded him for fighting.

New Nevada City Born But May Change Name

ELKO, Nev. (AP)—A town called Horse Shu was born in Nevada yesterday, but it may die before it's a month old.

Some folks just don't like its name.

The new town, located north of here on the Nevada-Idaho border, has a population of about 65. Almost the entire population works in four gambling clubs.

Cactus Pete's Club doesn't.

Elko County commissioners, who approved formation of the unincorporated town, decided to wait until next month's meeting to consider Cactus Pete's protest.

The two other casinos—Club 93 and Pair o' Dice—haven't said how they feel about the issue.
